JANUARY 27th, 1757. [Numb. 1180.]

The SOUTH-CAROLINA Gazette.

CHARLES-TOWN, January 27.

THE General Aſſembly of this Province proceeded upon Buſineſs on Tueſday laſt, and are now ſitting for the Diſpatch thereof.

The Little-Carpenter's coming to Town is now no longer a Doubt, for we can aſſure our Readers, that he is already arrived within a few Miles of it, with about 70 other Headmen and Warriors of the Cherokee Nation.

This Day arrived here, in good Health, (in the Andaluſia, Capt Bradſhaw, from London) His Excellency HENRY ELLIS, Eſq; the new Governor of Georgia; with —— Knox, Eſq; Provoſt-Marſhal of the ſaid Colony, Mr Patrick Graham, and Mr. John Neufville: As His Excellency had taken his Paſſage in the Three Brothers, Capt Beddie, it was hardly known that he was on board this Ship 'till he landed; ſo that we had not an Opportunity of receiving him in a Manner ſuitable to his Rank. We hear that His Excellency will ſet out for his Government in a few Days, and purpoſes to go by Land as far as Port Royal.

His Majeſty's Ship Kennington, commanded by Dudley Digges, Eſq; is juſt put in here; and, we hear, will ſail again in a few Days, for New York, whither ſhe was bound, with the Sutherland, as Convoy to 17 Tranſport ſhips, from Cork and Plymouth, having on board about 2300 Land Forces, but parted from them off the Weſtern-Iſlands, in exceeding bad Weather.

Laſt Monday arrived here the Privateer Snow Muſquito, of Halifax in Nova-Scotia, Capt. Matthew Pennel, from a ſucceſsful Cruize of only ſix Weeks; having brought in with her a French Brigantine, from Martinique bound for Bourdeaux richly laden, which ſhe took to the Eaſtward of Bermuda. The Prize is called la Lureaux, the French Maſter's Name Pierre Geneſca.

The Cockſpur Privateer, of Savannah in Georgia, commanded by Capt. David Cutler Braddock, we hear, fail'd on a Cruize from thence a few Days ago.

The Lyttelton Privateer, (the firſt fitted out from this Province), commanded by Capt. Thomas Tucker, falls down this Day into Rebellion Road, to proceed upon a Cruize.

By a Veſſel juſt arrived from Jamaica, we learn, that Martial Law, which was proclaimed there on the 5*th of* November from ſome Apprehenſions of an intended Inveſion, was ſuſpended on the 29*th of the ſame Month, and proclaimed again the next Day; but that before ſhe left the Iſland it was entirely ſuſpended: That a great Number of very ſmall* French Privateers do incredible Damage to their Trade, by lying under the Land: And, that but two Privateers had yet been fitted out there, who were obliged to apply for Commiſſions elſewhere, no Orders for granting them having been yet received at Jamaica, at the Time of their ſitting out.

Letters from Barbados, dated the 25*th of* Dec. ſay, that Admiral Frank and's Squadron then conſiſted of the Edinburgh and Sterling Caſtle, of 70 Guns each, the Auguſta and Anſon of 60, the Briſtol of 50, the Surprize of 20, and the Saltaſh and Tryal Sloops, who were all out upon a Cruize: That the French Privateers do incredibly diſtreſs their Trade, and come daily in Sight of the Iſland, ſometimes ſo near as to be fired upon by the Forts; but that they hoped ſoon to be relieved, as the Government had purchaſed a fine Bermuda Brigt. and put her under the Direction of the Admiral (to cruize for the Benefit of the Iſland) who had mann'd her, called her the Speaker, and given the Command of her to Capt. Walter Sterling, a brave active Man, whoſe Station was to be a little to Windward with one of the King's Sloops: That the Saltaſh Man of War had, on the 11*th, engaged a large* French Ship, which blew up at the 3*d Broadſide, and* 28 of her Crew periſhed: That the new Governor of Barbados is univerſally eſteemed, who, by being eaſy of Acceſs, redreſſes all Grievances, and gives the higheſt Satisfaction: That not one French Prize had yet been ſent in there by their Privateers, and only 3 by the Fleet, ſince the Commencement of the War: And, that the proper Orders for granting Commiſſions to Privateers, had been received but a Fortnight, thoſe fitted out there having been obliged to procure theirs at Antigua; where, 'tis thought, the Privateers fitted out at Bermuda, and ſent to Barbados for Commiſſions, have likewiſe been obliged to apply.

By the laſt Poſt from North Carolina we have Advice of the Death of William Faris, Eſq; Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty there; a Gentleman who was always zealous to ſerve his Country, and of unſpotted Integrity, whoſe Death may therefore be called a Public Loſs.

NEW-YORK, November 15.

TUESDAY laſt came to town from Albany, near 500 of the Roya Americans; and, we are told, ſome hundreds more are coming down, part to be quartered at Philadelphia, and others at &c &c. &c.

We learn by letters from Albany, that the famous Capt. Rogers, in an excurſion againſt the enemy a few weeks ago, fearing his party of 19 men might diſcover him by too great a noiſe in marching, obliged them to lay concealed a little diſtance from the enemy's camp at the Narrows, whilſt himſelf in the evening boldly ventured up, and taking the advantage of a grenadier centinel, by anſwering a Friend, fairly brought him from his poſt, without the leaſt noiſe, to his comrades, who ſoon after marched him into fort Edward, and gave him up a priſoner to lord Loudoun.

New York, Nov. 22. Several companies of battoemen, who went to the Northward early in the ſpring, came down ſince our laſt from Albany, and are gone to their reſpective homes.

And other bodies of the Royal Americans arrived here yeſterday from the ſame place

Extract of a Letter from Albany, dated laſt Friday.

"—Undoubtedly you have heard that all our operations againſt the enemy, for the ſeaſon, is at an end; and that our forces are going into winter quarters, certain intelligence having been obtained, that M. Montcalm, the French general, had ordered his forces into quarters ſome weeks ago, the weather beginning to grow very ſharp. Our fort Edward is rendered extremely ſtrong, inſomuch that the 500 men left in gariſon there, are thought ſufficient to keep off any body of men the enemy can bring againſt it. Fort William Henry is alſo well formed, and left garriſoned by 500 men more; and ſuch a communication is eſtabliſhed between them, that any attack made upon either, aſſiſtance from the other may be obtained in a trifle of time, and is ſo ordered, that ſhould the enemy come between, they are ſure of being engaged between two fires. We have heard of no late depredations on our frontiers. General Johnſon left this a few days ago for the Onondaga country. Lord Loudoun is now here, and when he leaves it I know not. We have a fine long range of barracks here, compleatly finiſhed for the comfort of the ſoldiers. I have one thing further particularly to obſerve to you, that the battoemen returned from duty, and paid off, are in general very healthy and ſtrong, owing, it is thought, to their conſtant exerciſe, their calling, indeed, being all ſuch."

Boſton, Nov. 22. By veſſels from Halifax we learn, That commodore Holmes has ſailed for England with all the men of war, except a 60 gun ſhip and a ſloop of war.

New York, Dec 13. Wedneſday evening laſt arrived here from Albany, his excellency John earl of Loudoun, accompanied by ſeveral gentlemen of the army.

In a letter from Barbados by capt. Rogers there is the following paragraph, viz

"By a letter from Guadaloupe, dated October 5, we are informed, that a Xebeck is arrived at Martinico from Marſeilles, of 22 9 pounders, 1 18 pounder, and 300 men; and that ſhe, a frigate, and a ſloop of 14 6 pounders, are to go out on a cruize in conſort. I am afraid they will do much miſchief, as the Xebeck rows with 48 oars. There are 2 more Xebecks of the ſame force daily expected from Marſeilles."

Yeſterday came up the Harlequin privateer ſloop, Capt. Haley, of this port, and brought in with her a fine large rich new French ſnow, called the Morning ſtar, Mon.———, bound from Martinico to Havre de Grace. Her loading is 200 hogſheads of ſugar and ſundry of coffee, with cotton, cocoa, &c. valued about 10,000 pounds. This is the ſecond valuable prize brought into this harbour by the Harlequin.

We have 4 ſnow privateers almoſt ready to ſail on a cruize, and 2 ſhips on float preparing; and ſuch a ſpirit of privateering prevails here, that by the moſt judicious account, no colony has exceeded it ſince the diſcovery of North-America.

New York, Dec. 27. We have a certain account in town, received a few days paſt, That the privateer Charming Peggy, capt. Hadden, of this port, has ſent into Rhode Iſland, a large French ſhip, bound from Old France to ſome of the French Iſlands, loaded chiefly with wine, bale goods, &c. She is expected here every day.

St. John's in Antigua, December 24. Yeſterday ſtopt at Engliſh harbour his majeſty's ſhip the Biddeford of 20 guns, the Hon. Capt Digby commander. The captain juſt left ſome diſpatches for admiral Forbiſhand, which ('tis ſaid) are of the utmoſt importance, and then proceeded immediately for Jamaica.

Boſton, Dec 20. We hear a veſſel is arrived at Newberry in 5 days from Halifax, the maſter of which informs, That before he ſailed a ſtore ſhip arrived there from Ireland, which ſailed under convoy of 5 men of war bound to that place.

We hear, that about 300 men, belonging to Shirley's and Pepperell's regiments, are arrived at Providence from Albany, on their way to Boſton, where they are to be quartered during the winter, and are daily expected.

NEW-YORK, January 3.

London, Oct. 15. "We hear an order is ſent to Ireland, for obliging all perſons who ſhip any proviſions for the plantations, to give bond that they are for the uſe of the people there, and not to be ſent away for the ſupply of the enemy; and proper certificates are to be given accordingly, otherwiſe the bond to be put in execution."

We are well informed, That the aforeſaid orders are circular throughout America; and that thoſe for the northern plantations, were brought by the Halifax packet-boat.—In conſequence of which, an embargo in this port has been laid ſince our laſt, on all kinds of proviſions, with this exception, that all ſuch perſons intending to lade and take on board any ſhip or veſſel, a cargo of proviſion of any kind, muſt firſt give bond,—Conditioned, That the ſaid cargo of proviſions, provisions, or any part thereof, shall not be landed in any other port or ports, place or places, than such only as belong to his majesty, or are in possession of his subjects: —And a certificate or certificates, expressing the several particulars of the cargo, under the hands and seals of the chief officers of the customs at such port or place where the same, or any part thereof have, and hath actually been landed, is to be produced to the chief officers of the customs for this port, within 12 months after the date of such bond, otherwise the same to be put in execution.

We learn by letters brought by the packet, that on the news arriving in England, of Oswego's being taken, the 3 regiments ordered for Halifax, were immediately counter ordered for this place: And, that admiral Byng had delivered a copy of his defence to the judge advocate of the admiralty.—

Our pilots we hear, are ordered to keep a good look out at the Hook, in expectation of the daily arrival of the fleet with the aforesaid regiments on board.—
